Congratulations on your purchase! As you enjoy your new product, please keep these safety tips in mind:

The Issue
The home theater entertainment experience is a growing trend and larger flat panel displays are popular purchases. However, flat panel displays are not always supported on the proper stands installed according to the manufacturer’s recommendations. Flat panel displays that are inappropriately situated on dressers, bookcases, shelves, desks, speakers, chests or other furniture that may fall over and cause injury.

This Manufacturer Cares!
The consumer electronics industry is committed to making home entertainment enjoyable and safe. The consumer electronics industry recognizes an independent laboratory (such as UL, CSA, ETL) has established the following consumer safety standard for display stands:

To safely install your flat panel display, one size does NOT fit all. Follow the manufacturer’s recommendations for proper use of this product.

Don’t allow children to climb on or play with furniture and television sets.

Don’t place flat panel displays on furniture that can easily be used as steps, such as a chest of drawers.

Remember that children can become excited while watching a program, especially on a “larger than life” flat panel display. Care should be taken to place or install the display where it cannot be pulled, pushed over, or knocked down.

Care should be taken to work all cords and cables connected to the panel display so that they cannot be pulled or grabbed by curious children.
